

FIRST CLASSES LAB

- A student at a university.
 - A person who is taking courses at a university that changes every semester with a purpose of completing a degree.
- A faculty member at a university.
 - A person who is working as a professor or lecturer at a university that is hired by the university for the purpose of teaching students.
- A work of art that is displayed in a gallery or museum.
 - A physical object that is presented at a gallery or museum for purchase and viewing for the visitors.
- An automobile that is registered with the Motor Vehicle Department.
 - An object that allows for transportation of goods and/or people which is registered with the Motor Vehicle Department.
- A pizza that is on the menu at a restaurant.
 - An object that is made with dough and toppings is on the menu of a restaurant.
- Household furniture.
 - An object that is found in a house for the purpose of convenience and using the space efficiently.